PASTOR'S MESSAGE

MENSAJE DEL PASTOR

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. "

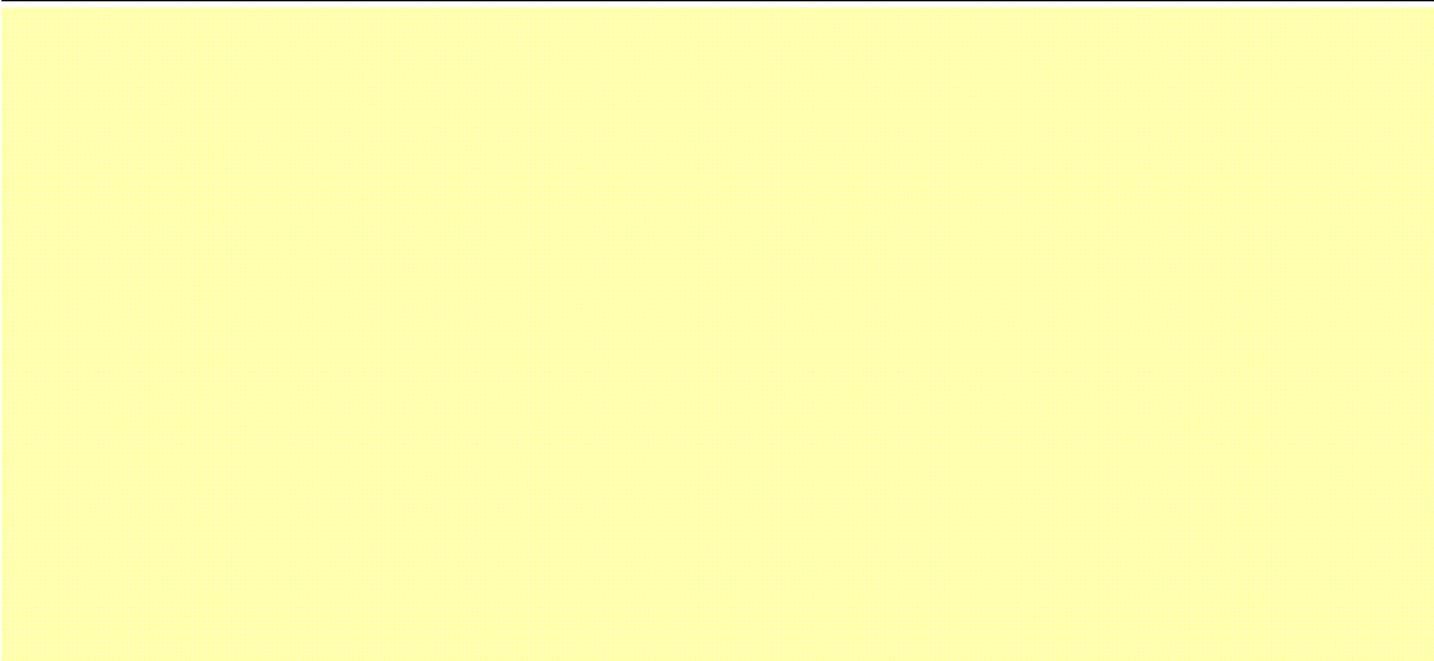

"El que quiera venir conmigo, que renuncie a sí mismo, tome su cruz y me siga."

In our Catholic faith the most powerful of all our visible symbols is the Crucifix. This symbol is more than just the cross since it actually displays Jesus in the middle of this witness of suffering. Our Protestant brothers and sisters don't like the Crucifix; they prefer the simple cross since that symbol falls more in the comfort of their faith. Most Protestants feel that if a person is good that person will be blessed without any problems in life. However, if they have sinned against God then they will be punished and have to suffer because of the consequences of them. As Catholics, we embrace the image of the Crucifix. It reminds us that often when we are experiencing suffering, we are not being punished for our sins but being invited to witness our faith even when it's not convenient. With the crucifix we are reminded that we are not alone in our suffering that we are understood by our God who experienced the same thing, and He is with us now. Our Lord calls us to take up our crosses and to follow Him. The cross is not hard to find our experiences as being human. However, look at it as an invitation to becoming holy rather than a punishment of being bad? We are called to embrace the Crucifix, not just endure the cross. Take care and God bless, Fr. Steve Correz

En nuestra fe católica el más poderoso de todos nuestros símbolos visibles es el crucifijo. El símbolo es más que solo la cruz, ya que realmente muestra a Jesús en medio de este testimonio de sufrimiento. A nuestros hermanos y hermanas protestantes no les gusta el crucifijo; ellos prefieren la cruz simple ya que ese símbolo cae más en la comodidad de su fe. La mayoría de los protestantes sienten que si una persona es buena esa persona será bendecida sin ningún problema en la vida. Sin embargo, si han pecado en contra de Dios, entonces serán castigados y sufrirán sus propias consecuencias. Como católicos, abrazamos la imagen del Crucifijo. Nos recuerda que con frecuencia cuando estamos sufriendo, no estamos siendo castigados por nuestros pecados, sino invitados a ser testigos de nuestra fe aun cuando no sea conveniente. Con el crucifijo nos recuerda de que no estamos solos en nuestro sufrimiento que somos comprendidos por nuestro Dios que experimento lo mismo, y ahora Él está con nosotros. Nuestro Señor nos llama a tomar nuestras cruces y a seguirlo. La cruz no es difícil de encontrar nuestras experiencias como seres humanos. Sin embargo, hay que mirarla como una invitación para ser santo en lugar de un castigo por ser ¿malo? Estamos llamados a abrazar el crucifijo, no solo a aguantar la cruz. Cuidense y que Dios les bendiga, Fr. Steve Correz

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LA LECTURAS

SIGUIENDO A CRISTO

Si alguna vez te jugaron una broma desagradable y algo risible a la vez, entonces comprenderás cómo Jeremías se siente hoy cuando le dice a Dios “me sedujiste, Señor, y me dejé seducir”. Ya lo imaginamos sacudiendo la cabeza con una sonrisa desconsolada, pero con el enojo latente en su voz. De igual manera, Pedro piensa que Jesús lo está “embaucando” cuando éste comienza a explicar que ser el Mesías significa sufrir y morir, y ser seguidor del Mesías significa cargar la cruz y hacer lo mismo. Jeremías trata de negar la voluntad de Dios para él al tratar de permanecer callado; Pedro –quien ha sido hecho cimiento de la Iglesia– totalmente niega la enseñanza de Jesús, por lo que hoy es llamado “Satanás”. Por suerte para nosotros, Jeremías se llega a dar cuenta de que tener la Palabra de Dios en el corazón significa que será inútil tratar de permanecer en silencio, aunque ello signifique el desprecio y la burla de los que te rodean. Felizmente Pedro al final volvió a la fe que profesó en el Evangelio de la semana pasada, y llegó a comprender nuestra necesidad, como bautizados seguidores de Cristo, de seguir su camino, aunque signifique seguirlo hasta la muerte.

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS

FOLLOWING CHRIST

If you’ve ever had an unpleasant but somewhat amusing practical joke played on you, then you have some understanding of how Jeremiah feels today when he tells God “good one—you duped me.” We can almost see him shaking his head with a bit of a rueful smile, but an angry undertone in his voice. In similar fashion, Peter thinks Jesus is “duping” him when Jesus starts to explain that being Messiah means suffering and dying, and being a follower of the Messiah means taking up a cross and doing the same. Jeremiah tries to deny God’s will for him by trying to shut up; Peter—who has just been made the foundation of the church—out and out denies the teaching of Jesus, for which he is named “Satan” today. Fortunately for us, Jeremiah comes to realize that to have the word of God placed in your heart means that it will be futile to try and keep silent, even if it means scorn and derision from those around you. Luckily Peter ultimately returned to the faith he professed in last week’s Gospel, and came to understand our need as baptized followers of Christ to follow in his way, even when it means following him to our very death.

CATHOLIC TEACHING PUT INTO PRACTICE

A Prayer for World Peace

We pray for the power to be gentle;
the strength to be forgiving;
the patience to be understanding;
and the endurance to accept the consequences of holding on to what we believe to be right.
May we put our trust in the power of good to overcome evil and the power of love to overcome hatred.

We pray for the vision to see and the faith to believe in a world emancipated from violence, a new world where fear shall no longer lead men or women to commit injustice,
nor selfishness make them bring suffering to others.
Help us to devote our whole life and thought and energy to the task of making peace, praying always for the inspiration and the power to fulfill the destiny for which we and all men and women were created.

Amen.

LA VIDA, JUSTICIA Y PAZ

La Doctrina VIDA, JUSTICIA, PAZ

Oración Por La Paz Mundial

*Oramos por el poder de ser amable;
La fuerza para perdonar;
La paciencia para ser comprensivos;
Y la capacidad para aceptar las consecuencias
De aferrarnos a lo que creemos que es correcto.
Pongamos nuestra confianza en el poder del bien para
vencer al mal Y el poder del amor para superar el odio.
Oramos por una visión para ver y la fe para creer
En un mundo emancipado de la violencia,
Un mundo nuevo donde el temor ya no conduzca a hombres o mujeres a cometer injusticias, Ni que el egoísmo los haga llevar el sufrimiento a los demás.*

*Ayúdanos a dedicar toda nuestra vida y pensamiento y energía A la tarea de hacer la paz, Orando siempre por la inspiración y el poder Para cumplir el destino por el cual nosotros y todos los hombres y mujeres fuimos creados.
Amén.*

TREASURES FROM TRADITION

It's interesting to imagine the scene when the changes in our liturgy were first tested. Choices for prayer texts were one thing, but responses from the people were another. In early 1967, secret test-drives of the new Mass were conducted in the Vatican. Pope Paul VI was present, and there was a handful of bishops, priests, a few laypeople and two sisters making up the assembly. Everyone had a booklet with every word of the songs, rubrics, and prayers, blank paper, and a pencil for notes. After each Mass, the ordained men in the group met in the pope's library to share their experiences. The laypeople and sisters met separately.

Over a week's time they tested what they called a "read Mass with singing," a "Mass entirely recited," and a "Sung Mass." While the ordained were generally in favor, the lay comments were very clear and insightful, and had great impact on the final result. This was a brilliant plan on the part of the pope, who got to see how the reform was going, and to recognize in this small trial run a growing consensus that reform was needed and welcome. Based on his observation, Pope Paul VI called for specific innovations, such as beginning the Mass with the sign of the cross. It's amazing that some of our most familiar rites are really quite new treasures of our tradition!

COME AND SEE

Sister Debra Flander, SDSH

Picture this scene from scripture: two disciples of John the Baptist see Jesus walk by. John says to the disciples "There is the Lamb of God." They quickly follow Jesus. Jesus turned and asked them: "What do you want?" They responded "Where do you live?" Jesus replied "COME AND SEE." They followed. (Paraphrased from John 1:36-39).

Our lives are filled with the "rush" of the secular aspect of the preparations for Christmas. Buy one more present; go to parties; take the kids from here to there; go, go, go. Yet, do not our hearts long for Jesus to be in our lives? For Jesus to be the center of our lives?

Most of us received our First Holy Communion when we were 7, 8 or maybe 9. Do you remember the excitement, the longing, anticipation and the feeling "I cannot wait to receive Jesus in Holy Communion?" "Come Lord Jesus, Come."

We long to celebrate once again the time when the Son of God, quietly and with no fanfare, slipped into our world, into our human history; when the Son of God became a man. He was laid in a manger as a baby.

There are so many people in our world who do not know Jesus, or who have fallen way from their faith. They have not experienced the love of Jesus. We need to ask ourselves: "Does my life say 'Come and see'?" Remember "They will know we are Christians by our love". During Advent we have an opportunity to once again long for Christmas and for the second coming of Christ. Hopefully this will help us to have our lives centered on "Come, Lord Jesus, Come."

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Muchos católicos afroamericanos son miembros de los Caballeros de san Pedro Claver, organización fundada para ellos en 1909, cuando el racismo no les permitía participar en organizaciones euroestadounidenses. Esta organización toma su nombre de un jesuita español del siglo XVII, Pedro, quien llegó a Cartagena (Colombia) en 1610 y se escandalizó ante la trata de esclavos en el continente americano. A pesar de censuras papales en contra de la esclavitud esta pecaminosa costumbre seguía robando humanidad a los africanos. Pedro se consagró al servicio de ellos, recibéndolos con caridad, comida y alivio apenas llegaban en los barcos.

Pedro no pudo liberar a los esclavos pero sí se dedicó a servirlos y convertirlos. Él preparaba catequistas de entre los mismos africanos para que pudieran cristianizar a los recién llegados. Pedro Claver sufrió muchos insultos y calumnias por reunir a los africanos en iglesias y en especial, por darles los sacramentos cristianos. Sus propios superiores, dejándose llevar por las críticas de los criollos, lo castigaban por el trabajo que hacía con los esclavos. Por tal razón se autodenominó como "Pedro Claver, de los negros, esclavo para siempre".
