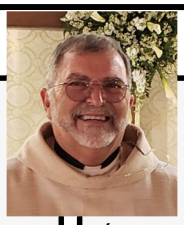
PASTOR'S MESSAGE



This past week we celebrated Independence Day. We rejoice for the freedom to choose who we are and what it is we want to do. It is good to recognize this freedom. It is also good to remember the importance of law.

Laws exist so that we have perimeters as to how we exist together as a people. Laws exist to protect the individual from being abused by the government, by a majority of people or by other individuals. Laws are essential for us to exist together.

It is popular to resent laws and government. We do not like the idea of someone else telling us what to do. It would be great if we all acted in ways that were always respectful to the dignity and needs of others. Unfortunately, laws exist because we act selfishly and cruelly towards each other.

The readings for this weekend direct our attention to the Law of God handed to us by Moses. The Law of God is a gift to us. The Law of God is an invitation to be more humane towards one another.

We are at this time in history experiencing so many different inhumane situations. We have a war in Ukraine, the beginnings of worldwide famine, destruction of our environment, cutting off assistances of care for the poor and sick, and wide-ranging homelessness. All of this suffering is the result collective human selfishness.

The act of killing another human being begins with dehumanizing another and results in our own dehumanization. Whether it is abortion, murder, war or the execution of a prisoner, we begin with dehumanizing the victim. We justify our action by refusing to accept the others right to exist. This act of dehumanization leads us into dehumanization of our selves by becoming murderers.

Our disobedience to all of the Laws of God dehumanize us as much as killing another person. To tell a lie is the death of our soul and the destruction of trust we have between each other. To steal is an act of selfishness with disregard of others. To commit adultery or lust moves sexuality to just animalistic behavior and objectifies others.

As we constantly evaluate the laws of our land, we need to view law through the lens of whether or not the law moves us to be more human. If a law does not achieve this end, then that law needs to be changed.

MENSAJE DEL PASTOR

La semana pasada celebramos el Día de la Independencia. Nos regocijamos por la libertad de elegir quienes somos y que es lo que queremos hacer. Es bueno reconocer esta libertad. También es bueno recordar la importancia de la ley.

Las leyes existen para que tengamos límites de cómo existimos juntos como pueblo. Las leyes existen para proteger al individuo de ser abusado por el gobierno, por la mayoría de las personas o por otros individuos. Las leyes son indispensables para que vivamos juntos.

Es usual resentirse de las leyes y el gobierno. No nos gusta la idea de que alguien más nos diga qué hacer. Seria genial si todos actuáramos de manera siempre respetuosa con dignidad y las necesidades de los demás. Las leyes existen porque desafortunadamente, actuamos de manera egoísta y cruel entre nosotros.

Las lecturas de este fin de semana dirigen nuestra atención a la ley de Dios que nos dio Moisés. La ley de Dios es un regalo para nosotros. La ley de Dios es una invitación a ser más humanos con los demás.

En este momento de la historia estamos experimentando tantas diferentes situaciones inhumanas. Tenemos una guerra en Ucrania, el comienzo de una hambruna mundial, la destrucción de nuestro medio ambiente, el corte de la asistencia para el cuidado de los pobres y los enfermos, y una gran cantidad de personas sin hogar. Todo este sufrimiento es el resultado del egoísmo colectivo humano.

El acto de matar a otro ser humano comienza con la deshumanización de otro y resulta en nuestra propia deshumanización. Ya sea el aborto, el asesinato, la guerra o la ejecución de un prisionero, empezamos por deshumanizar a la víctima. Justificamos nuestra acción negándonos a aceptar el derecho de los demás a existir. Este acto de deshumanización nos lleva a nuestra propia deshumanización convirtiéndonos en asesinos. Inhumanos.

Nuestra desobediencia a todas las Leyes de Dios nos deshumaniza tanto como matar a otra persona. Decir una mentira es la muerte de nuestra alma y la destrucción de la confianza que tenemos entre nosotros. Robar es un acto de egoísmo con desprecio por los demás. Cometer adulterio o lujuria cambia la sexualidad a un comportamiento simplemente animal y degrada a los demás.

A medida que constantemente evaluamos las leyes de nuestra tierra, debemos ver la ley a través de la lente de si la ley nos aparta o no a ser más humanos. Si una ley no logra este fin, entonces esa ley necesita ser cambiada.

Cha Sở Nhắn Gửi (Pastor's Message)

Tuần trước, chúng ta đã kỷ niệm Ngày Độc Lập. Chúng ta vui mừng vì được tự do lựa chọn mình là ai và chúng ta muốn làm gì. Đó một điều tốt khi biết nhìn nhận sự tự do này. Nhưng đồng thời cũng nên nhớ tầm quan trọng của luật pháp đi kèm.

Luật pháp được thiết lập để chúng ta có các yếu tố căn bản mà biết cách tồn tại cùng nhau như một dân tộc. Luật pháp được thiết lập để bảo vệ mọi cá nhân không bị lạm dụng bởi chính phủ, bởi số đông, hoặc bởi những cá nhân khác. Luật pháp là điều cần thiết để chúng ta có thể tồn tại cùng nhau.

Điều thường thấy ở đây là sự bất bình đối với luật pháp và chính phủ. Đó là vì chúng ta không thích cái ý tưởng bị người khác bắt chúng ta phải làm gì. Sẽ thật tuyệt vời nếu tất cả chúng ta đều biết hành động theo đường hướng tôn trọng phẩm giá và nhu cầu của người khác. Thật không may, luật pháp được tồn tại bởi vì chúng ta luôn có su hướng hành động ích kỷ và tàn nhẫn đối với nhau.

Các bài đọc cuối tuần này hướng sự ý thức của chúng ta đến Luật của Thiên Chúa được Môi-sê truyền lại cho chúng ta. Luật pháp của Thiên Chúa là một món quà cho chúng ta. Luật pháp của Thên Chúa là một lời mời gọi để trở nên nhân đạo hơn đối với nhau.

Chúng ta đang ở trong một dai đoạn lịch sử của rất nhiều tình huống phi nhân tính. Chúng ta đang chứng kiến một cuộc chiến ở Ukraine, là khởi đầu của nạn đói trển toàn thế giới, sự tàn phá môi trường quanh chúng ta, sự cắt đứt quỹ hỗ trợ chăm sóc cho người nghèo và bệnh tật, và tình trạng vô gia cư ngày một càng nhiều. Tất cả những đau khổ này là kết quả của sự ích kỷ trong mỗi con người chúng ta.

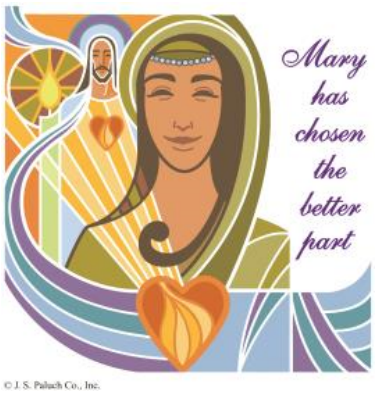
Hành động giết người khác bắt đầu bằng việc loại trừ quyền làm người của người khác và qua đó dẫn đến việc huỷ hoại nhân tính của chính chúng ta. Cho dù đó là hành động phá thai, giết người, chiến tranh, hoặc hành quyết một tù nhân, là chúng ta đang bắt đầu bằng việc loại trừ quyền làm người của nạn nhân. Chúng ta biện minh cho hành động của mình bằng cách chối bỏ quyền tồn tại của người khác. Hành động loại trừ quyền làm người của người khác này dẫn chúng ta đến việc tự biến bản thân trở thành những kẻ giết người.

Việc chúng ta không tuân theo tất cả các Lề Luật của Thiên Chúa cũng làm mất đi nhân tính của chúng ta, giống như việc giết một người khác. Nói dối là bóp chết của linh hồn chúng ta khi phá hủy lòng tin mà chúng ta đang có giữa nhau. Ăn trộm là một hành động ích kỷ coi thường người khác. Ngoại tình hoặc dâm dục chuyển tình dục thành thú tính và phản bội người khác.

Khi chúng ta liên tục đánh giá luật pháp của đất nước chúng ta, chúng ta cần nhìn luật pháp qua lăng kính của việc luật pháp có thúc đẩy chúng ta trở thành con người hoàn thiện hơn hay không. Nếu một luật không đạt được mục đích này, thì luật đó cần phải được thay đổi.

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS

PRAYER AND SERVICE



How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?
Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel! We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be?

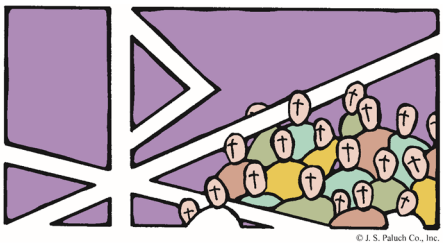
Each Christian needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy; then we need an hour.
—St. Francis de Sales

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LAS LECTURAS

LA ORACIÓN Y EL SERVICIO

¿Cómo podemos dar alegría y balance a nuestras vidas de oración y servicio a nuestro Dios amoroso?

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús le dice a Marta que su preocupación por hacer lo correcto, como lo ordena la tradición judía, podría no ser el mejor uso de sus energías. Su hermana María, que atraída se sienta a los pies de Jesús, no debe ser reprendida. ¿Está Jesús tratando de mostrar a Marta que debe dedicar más tiempo a su alimentación espiritual?
En la primera lectura, Abraham y Sara parecen ser como Marta. Y, sin embargo, la bienvenida entusiasta y atención alegre de Abraham a sus "visitantes" parecen casi espiritual. En la segunda lectura, Pablo se regocija en su servicio al Evangelio.



Escuchamos en el salmo que los que hacen justicia vivirán en la presencia del Señor. La oración y el servicio, ¿qué mayor alegría puede haber?

Todo cristiano necesita media hora de oración al día, excepto cuando está ocupado; en este caso, necesita una hora.
—San Francisco de Sales

The Summer Bible Classes for Children / Clases Biblicas Para Ninos en el Verano

This past month the children at COSCP had the opportunity to participate in the Bible classes. The Bible is a gift from God to us. Bible class is teaching children what it means to enjoy God's Word and how to apply it.

"Let the Children come to me and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these"

-Matthew 19:14

Este mes pasado los niños en COSCP tuvieron la oportunidad de participar en las clases de Biblia. La Biblia es un regalo de Dios para nosotros. Clases bíblicas es enseñarles a los niños lo que significa disfrutar la Palabra de Dios y cómo aplicarla.

"Dejar que los niños vengan a mí, y no se lo impidan, porque el reino de los cielos es de quienes son como ellos." - Mateo 19:14

Thank you to all the catechist and volunteers that were able to accompany us and help with the summer Bible classes for the children.

Gracias a todos los catequistas y voluntarios que pudieron acompañarnos y ayudarnos en las clases de Biblia de verano para los niños.

R.C.I.A. NEWS!

"Go to the world and spread the good news"

Have you heard about
"The Christian Rite of Initiation for adults"?
The Initiation for adults is a gradual and ordinary process for those who would like to follow Christ as members of the Catholic Church (receive Baptism, Confirmation and Communion), and is carried out in connection with the faithful community. It's a return to the tradition of the old Church where the whole community of the old Church where the whole community go along with the adults in their journey of faith at the same time they are preparing to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. (R.C.I.A. # 4)

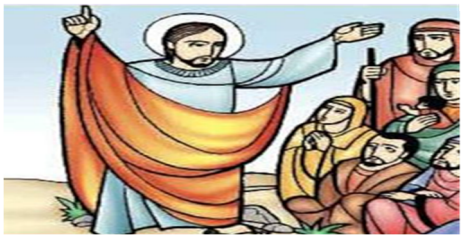
¡Noticia sobre el R.I.C.A!



"Vayan a todo el mundo y cuenten la Buena Nueva"

¿Has escuchado sobre
"El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos"?
La iniciación de adultos a la Iglesia Católica es un proceso ordinario y gradual para aquellos que desean seguir a Cristo como miembro de la Iglesia Católica (reciben Bautismo, Confirmación y Comunión) y se lleva a cabo en conexión con la comunidad de fieles. Es un regreso a la tradición de la Iglesia antigua donde la comunidad acompaña a los adultos en su jornada de Iniciación en la Pascua. (R.I.C.A. # 4)
