 Lord,
 Help us to remember that our parish is composed of people like me.
 Help me to be friendly, so my parish will be welcoming.
 Inspire me to invite people to join us, so our pews will be filled.
 Help me do your work, Lord, so our parish will glorify your name.
 Inspire me to be generous to your people, so my parish will be giving, as you are giving.
 Help me to lead others to worship and fellowship.
 Inspire me to keep your church loving, faithful, and hopeful.
 With your help, Lord, I will dedicate my many blessings in service to you and our parish.
 We humbly ask this in the name of Christ Our Savior.
 Amen.

Today's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord represents a transition in the human life of Jesus. After his baptism in the Jordan River and the proclamation, "You are my beloved son; with you I am well pleased," Jesus begins his public ministry. The focus of Jesus's teaching and action in the Gospel of Luke is a transition of understanding where the Lord may be found. In the Law of Moses, the promise of blessings is bestowed on those who are faithful in the fulfillment of the Law. The reason for people's suffering and poverty is because in some way a person was not faithful to the Law. Among the Pharisees, who strived to make sure they followed every detail of the Law, the suffering people experience was a consequence of not being faithful to completing the Law of Moses. The Book of Job is an example of an examination of his life in where he had failed to be faithful to the Law. Instead, Jesus proclaims in the Gospel of Luke, "blessed are you poor, the reign of God is yours (Luke 6:20)." Jesus not only transitions from his private life growing up in Nazareth to public preaching, but he is also transitioning the focus of God's beloved to those who are afflicted in life. He is teaching his followers that if they desire to be in the reign of God, they must associate themselves with the poor, the sinner, and the afflicted by demonstrating through merciful acts that God is with us in those who suffer. January is the beginning of a new year. We will begin a new presidential administration in a few weeks. We are in the midst of transition. As we journey into the future, will we transition our attention to the poor and afflicted who are among us?

Pastor's Message

Mensaje del Párroco

La celebración de hoy del Bautismo del Señor representa una transición en la vida humana de Jesús. Después de su bautismo en el río Jordán y la proclamación, "Tú eres mi hijo amado; en ti tengo complacencia," Jesús comienza su ministerio público. El enfoque de las enseñanzas y acciones de Jesús en el Evangelio de Lucas es una transición en la comprensión de dónde se puede encontrar al Señor. En la Ley de Moisés, la promesa de bendiciones se concede a aquellos que son fieles en el cumplimiento de la Ley. La razón del sufrimiento y la pobreza de las personas es que de alguna manera no fueron fieles a la Ley. Entre los fariseos, que se esforzaban por asegurarse de seguir cada detalle de la Ley, el sufrimiento que experimentaban las personas era una consecuencia de no ser fieles al cumplimiento de la Ley de Moisés. El Libro de Job es un ejemplo de un examen de su vida en el que él había fallado en ser fiel a la Ley. Sin embargo, Jesús proclama en el Evangelio de Lucas: "Bienaventurados los pobres, porque el reino de Dios es de ustedes (Lucas 6:20)." Jesús no solo hace una transición de su vida privada creciendo en Nazaret a la predicación pública, sino que también está haciendo una transición en el enfoque del amado de Dios hacia aquellos que están afligidos en la vida. Les enseña a sus seguidores que, si desean estar en el reino de Dios, deben asociarse con los pobres, los pecadores y los afligidos, demostrando a través de actos misericordiosos que Dios está con nosotros en aquellos que sufren. Enero es el comienzo de un nuevo año. En unas semanas comenzará una nueva administración presidencial. Estamos en medio de una transición. Al avanzar hacia el futuro, ¿trasladaremos nuestra atención a los pobres y afligidos que están entre nosotros?

Thông Diệp Cha Xứ

Hôm nay chúng ta mừng lễ Chúa Giêsu Chịu Phép Rửa tượng trưng cho sự chuyển đổi trong cuộc đời làm người của Chúa Giêsu. Sau khi chịu phép rửa tại Sông Jordan và tuyên bố: "Con là Con yêu dấu của Ta; Ta hài lòng về Con", Chúa Giêsu bắt đầu sứ vụ công khai của mình. Trọng tâm của lời dạy và hành động của Chúa Giêsu trong Phúc âm Luca là sự chuyển đổi trong nhận thức về nơi có thể tìm thấy Chúa. Trong Luật Môsê, lời hứa phước lành được ban cho những ai trung thành trong việc thực hiện Luật. Lý do khiến mọi người đau khổ và nghèo đói là vì theo một cách nào đó, một người đã không trung thành với Luật. Trong số những người Phariseu, những người cố gắng đảm bảo rằng họ tuân theo mọi chi tiết của Luật, thì sự đau khổ mà mọi người trải qua là hậu quả của việc không trung thành với việc hoàn thành Luật Môsê. Sách Gióp là một ví dụ về việc xem xét cuộc đời của ông, nơi ông đã không trung thành với Luật. Thay vào đó, Chúa Giêsu tuyên bố trong Phúc âm Luca, "Phúc cho anh em là những kẻ nghèo khó, vì Nước Thiên Chúa là của anh em" (Luca 6:20). Chúa Giêsu không chỉ chuyển từ cuộc sống riêng tư khi lớn lên ở Nazareth sang việc rao giảng công khai, mà Người còn chuyển trọng tâm của những người được Chúa yêu thương sang những người đau khổ trong cuộc sống. Người dạy những người theo Người rằng nếu họ muốn ở trong Nước Thiên Chúa, họ phải kết hợp với người nghèo, người tội lỗi và người đau khổ bằng cách chứng minh qua những hành động thương xót rằng Chúa ở cùng chúng ta trong những người đau khổ. Tháng 1 là khởi đầu của một năm mới. Chúng ta sẽ bắt đầu một chính quyền tổng thống mới trong vài tuần nữa. Chúng ta đang ở giữa thời kỳ chuyển đổi. Khi chúng ta bước vào tương lai, liệu chúng ta có chuyển sự chú ý của mình sang những người nghèo và đau khổ đang ở giữa chúng ta không?
